How to Use This Planner

이렇게 사용하세요

1 • Start with Hangul

New to the alphabet? Use the Hangul Quick Reference page. Romanization is a bridge — try to read the Hangul first.

2 • One theme per month

Each monthly page has a Korean theme and 10 vocabulary words. Learn 2–3 words a week and review them on Sundays.

3 • One phrase a day

Every day in the weekly pages comes with one natural, polite everyday phrase (해요체 / 합니다체). Read it aloud three times, then use it in a sentence of your own.

4 • Track your progress

Log study minutes in the Study Tracker, collect new words in the Vocabulary Log, and color your Habit Tracker every day.

5 • Set a TOPIK-style goal

Use the Exam Goal page to choose a target level, a test date, and a weekly plan for listening, reading, and writing.

Romanization note

Romanization follows the Revised Romanization of Korean, based on pronunciation (e.g. 감사합니다 → gamsahamnida). Listen to native audio whenever you can.

Tip — Print single-sided, or duplex, and hole-punch for a binder. Weeks run Monday–Sunday (ISO weeks 1–52: Jan 4, 2027 – Jan 2, 2028). Questions? moneynova247@gmail.com
